What people appreciate about me

- I am a carer of a lovely son with learning and physical disabilities
- I care passionately about the quality of learning disability services in Wales
- I am a good listener
- I like to help and find solutions to problems
- I am a glass half full person but
- I will fight in your corner if I believe the cause to be just!

How to get the best out of me

- Be direct, don't patronise
- Give me all the information
- Wherever it is relevant allow me the possibility to challenge and debate
- Having my opinions valued as part of the reciprocal process of governance

What is important to me as a Trustee of mirus

- That the whole organisation is values driven
- That people we support and staff are always treated in a person centred way
- That organisational structures are open and transparent
- That the strength of the organisation lies in the collaboration of the sum of its parts, people supported carers, families, tenants, management, staff and trustees.
