DBS

Criminal Disclosure and Rehabilitation of Offenders Act Exceptions Order 2001
You do not generally have to disclose details of spent convictions. However, if the post you are applying for is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act by virtue of the (Exceptions) Order because it could involve access to persons who are disabled, addicted to drugs, alcohol or under 18 or over 65 years of age, you must disclose details of all convictions, including cautions, spent or otherwise. (Please refer to guidance notes).
If you do not have any convictions to disclose write "no convictions". Alternatively disclose convictions below. Please note that all posts are subject to a criminal record check. In accordance with the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 only relevant convictions will be taken into account when assessing your capability.
